Cathedral High School

1994

Sr. Patricia Keaveney SND

We the students of Cathedral High School enthusiastically dedicate the 1994 yearbook to our principal, Sr. Patricia Keaveney, SND. Although as students we do not know all the details of what a principal does, we are very much aware of what Sr. Pat stood for, because we know what Cathedral High School stands for: academic excellence, respect for all cultures and a love of God. Sr. Pat was the school's leader, and gave it its direction. "Bring down the walls between your races," "Be true to yourself and to your God," and "Keep the dream alive" were a few of her words. We also remember how she began a warning: "A word to the wise". She was firm, fair, and generous and never met a kid she didn't like. Sr. Pat made Cathedral High School a special place for us to be where everyone mattered and respect for all the cultural variations was a fundamental law.

As Sr. Pat ends her 13 years at Cathedral High School we end our high school years feeling especially grateful that we were there during her time.
